

St. Helens High School

HEALTH SCIENCE

Students will learn:

- To identify various components of human anatomy and physiology
- How to provide proper patient care
- To communicate health information accurately and professionally
- How to interact with patients
- To adhere to safety, privacy, legal, and ethical practices

PCC Related Programs

- Medical Assisting & Medical Imaging
- Dental Assisting & Dental Hygiene
- Emergency Medical Services
- Eye Technician
- Medical Laboratory Technology
- Nursing Assistant & Nursing
- Health Information Management
- Health Professions (various transfer options)

View pcc.edu/programs for all PCC programs

Local Industry Career Opportunities

Medical Assistants

Exercise Trainers and Group Fitness Instructors

Dental Assistants

Licensed Practical and Licensed Vocational Nurses

Clinical Laboratory Technologists and Technicians

Dental Hygienists

Registered Nurses

Nurse Practitioners

Pharmacists

Click on the QR code for more employment data

St Helens CTE Program of Study

Intro to Health Services

Health Careers 1

For full course sequence, see your guidance counselor

PCC Dual Credit Offerings

- Medical Terminology

Click on the QR for more information about dual credit

